Coming to Jesus.

JESUS, that condescending King,
Is pleased to hear when children sing,
And while our feeble voices rise,
Will not our humble prayer despise.

Then keep us, Lord, from every sin,
Which we can see and feel within;
And what we neither feel nor see,
Forgive; for all is known to thee.

We own there's nothing good in us,
To tempt thee to befriend us thus;
For sin and folly waste our days,
Our prayers are weak, and poor our praise.
