MAKE THY WAY MINE.

FATHER, hold thou my hands ; the way is steep,
I cannot see the path my feet must keep ;
I cannot tell, so dark the tangled way,
 Where next to step. Oh, stay ;
Come close ; take both my hands in thine ;
 Make thy way mine.
Lead me. I may not stay :
I must move on, but oh, the way !
 I must be brave and go ;
Step forward in the dark nor know
If I shall reach the goal at all—
 If I shall fall
 Take thou my hand ;
Take it ! Thou knowest best
