EXTRACTS

From the State Constitution Respecting Public Schools.

SECTION VII.

6. The fund for the support of free schools, and all money, stock and other property which may hereafter be appropriated for that purpose, or received into the treasury under the provision of any law heretofore passed to augment the said fund, shall be securely invested and remain a perpetual fund ; and the income thereof, except so much as it may be judged expedient to apply to an increase of the capital, shall be annually appropriated to the support of public free schools, for the equal benefit of all the people of the state ; and it shall not be competent for the legislature to borrow, appropriate or use the said fund, or any part thereof, for any other purpose, under any pretence whatever ; the legislature shall provide for the maintenance and support of a thorough and efficient system of free public schools for the instruction of all the children in this state between the ages of five and eighteen years.

11. The legislature shall not pass private, local or special laws providing for the management and support of free public schools.

School Law.

An act to establish a system of public instruction (Revision of one thousand nine hundred).

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey :

ARTICLE I.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

1. The general supervision and control of public instruction shall be vested in a State Board of Education, which board shall consist of two members from each congressional district, who shall not be members of the same political party, and who shall not reside in the same county except where a congressional district shall lie wholly within one county. The several members of the State Board of Education as now constituted shall continue to serve for the full term for which they have been severally appointed. Their successors shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and for the following terms: In place of the member whose term shall expire in the year nineteen hundred, a member shall be appointed for the term of five years; in place of the members whose terms shall expire in the year nineteen hundred and one, two members shall be appointed each for the term of four years, and two each for the term of five years; in place of the member whose term shall expire in the year nineteen hundred and three, a member shall be appointed for the term of three years; in place of the members whose terms shall expire in the year nineteen hundred and four, three members shall be appointed each for the term of three years, three each for the term of four years, and four each for the term of five years, and thereafter in the place of any member whose term shall expire a successor shall be ap-
