INTRODUCTORY NOTE.

THE interest which was shown in this sketch, when it was read at a Conference of the Hackney and East Middlesex Band of Hope Union, has led me to issue it in its present form.

*Oh, happy they whom Jesus calls,
And who His call obey,—
They come within the Heavenly walls,
Thrice happy day!*

And each unto his room is led
By Him Who holds the Key;
"Come in," He saith; "for thee I bled—
Work thou for Me.

"Behold, the door is open wide!
The day is not yet gone—
Make haste—the workless eventide
Is stealing on.

*Oh, happy they whom Jesus tells
To work for Him and pray,
With them His presence ever dwells
Through life's long day!*

ARCHBISHOP PLUNKET.
