TO

SIR WILLIAM STIRLING MAXWELL, BART.,

TO WHOSE WORKS ON SPANISH ART THE WRITER

IS DEEPLY INDEBTED,

AND WHOSE KIND PERUSAL OF THESE PAGES

HAS GIVEN HER ENCOURAGEMENT,

THIS VOLUME

IS GRATEFULLY INSCRIBED.

P R E F A C E.

THIS volume is in great part taken from a Journal kept by the writer during a tour in Spain in 1869, and is put forth with the hope that it may prove useful to those who visit that pleasant land.

The writer ventures to publish these sketches, as an unpretending manual, in which the endeavour has been made to "gather up the fragments" of English, Spanish, and legendary history connected with the Towns and Pictures mentioned in its pages.

It has also been the writer's especial object to make better known some facts relating to the Spanish Church, which may be interesting to travellers in Catholic Spain.

35, BERKELEY SQUARE,

December, 1870.
