HERCULES FURENS: A TRAGEDY OF SENECA

TO PROFESSORS, TEACHERS, AND OTHERS.
INTERESTED IN CLASSICAL EDUCATION.

The Publishers of the Classical Works announced in the annexed Catalogue, would ask the attention of Professors, and those interested in Teaching, to the following extract from the London Examiner, edited by Mr. Taylor. In writing of the Boston editions of the classics, by Felton, Wheeler, Woolsey, and others, he says:

'It must be distinctly understood, that the object of these several editions is to furnish students with readable editions of the Greek Classics, editions that shall form a happy medium between the text without comment, which is so often unwisely put in the hands of the learner, and those ponderous annotations, which can only serve to perplex him. Hence, the notes are explanatory and illustrative, rather than critical, and their conciseness cannot be too much praised. Their texts are those of the highest European scholars; they are all fully, yet briefly illustrated by English notes; and all are preceded by such introductions as render them complete in themselves, and furnish the student with that amount of historical and other information which enables him to pursue his journey in a region not altogether strange. All are exceedingly well printed in a good, clear type, and are volumes as well fitted for the library of a private gentleman, as for the school-room or the university.'

As the most of these works are stereotyped, and consequently do not get 'out of print,' and are not 'out of the market,' they can always be had, if applied for directly to the publishers,
