DEDICATION.

TO you my friends and companions, the Young Men of the Ryecroft Independent Church, I affectionately dedicate this book. Will you accept it from an old friend? I ask you to read it thoughtfully. It calls your attention to the life of one who, as a young man, gave himself up to the service of God with an earnestness and single-heartedness which has rarely, if ever, been equalled. To many of his views and practices I cannot expect you to assent; but if the study of John Woolman's life shall lead any of you to throw aside anything that may hinder your spiritual progress in even the smallest degree, I shall think the little time and labour bestowed upon the book amply repaid, and shall thank God and take courage.

THOMAS GREEN.
