FOREWORD

The aim of this Epitome is to present to the public the origin, the organization, the purpose and the work of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, in condensed form.

It is planned to make it an annual publication, which shall summarize the activities of each year in such abbreviated form that he who runs may read—not as a substitute for the annual Year Book of the Endowment, which presents all these matters in detail for students and librarians, but to meet the needs of the more casual inquirer and to spread more widely definite knowledge of the work of the Endowment, regarding which there is considerable lack of public and intelligent understanding. The Epitome is planned for wide circulation, outside and beyond the many libraries to which and individuals to whom the Year Book is regularly mailed. It is hoped that the pamphlet will familiarize the public with the work of the Endowment to a much wider degree.

It will be sent gratuitously to all applicants. Show it to your friends.
