Sir :

I have the honor to transmit herewith a revised list of the officers and members of the American Historical Association, together with our Constitution and Act of Incorporation and a revised list of the Historical Societies in the United States.

received from the Government Printing Office will be transmitted to members. The papers read before the Association at the Historical Congress in Chicago, July 11-13, will constitute the Annual Report for 1893. The printing of the Association reports is necessarily somewhat delayed.

It was agreed in Chicago that the next annual meeting of the Association should be held at Saratoga about September 10, 1894. This date will be the decennial of the Association. Papers intended for the programme should be proposed at an early date.

Respectfully,

HERBERT B. ADAMS,

Secretary of the American Historical Association.

ACT OF INCORPORATION.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Andrew D. White, of Ithaca, in the State of New York; George Bancroft, of Washington, in the District of Columbia; Justin Winsor, of Cambridge, in the State of Massachusetts; William F. Poole, of Chicago, in the State of Illinois; Herbert B. Adams, of Baltimore, in the State of Maryland; Clarence W. Bowen, of Brooklyn, in the State of New York; their associates and successors, are hereby created, in the District of Columbia, a body corporate and politic, by the name of the American Historical Association, for the promotion of historical studies, the collection and preservation of historical manuscripts, and for kindred purposes in the interest of American history and of history in America. Said Association is authorized to hold real and personal estate in the District of Columbia so far only as may be necessary to its lawful ends to an amount not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars, to adopt a constitution, and to make by-laws not inconsistent with law. Said Association shall have its principal office at Washington, in the District of Columbia, and may hold its annual meetings in such places as the said incorporators shall determine. Said Association shall report annually to the Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution concerning its proceedings and the condition of historical study in America. Said Secretary shall communicate to Congress the whole of such reports, or such portions thereof as he shall see fit. The Regents of the Smithsonian Institution are authorized to permit said Association to deposit its collections, manuscripts, books, pamphlets, and other material for history in the Smithsonian Institution or in the National Museum at their discretion, upon such conditions and under such rules as they shall prescribe.

[Approved, January 4, 1889.]

CONSTITUTION.

I

The name of this Society shall be THE AMERICAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION.

II.

Its object shall be the promotion of historical studies.

III.

Any person approved by the Executive Council may become a member by paying three dollars; and after the first year may continue a member by paying an annual fee of three dollars. On payment of fifty dollars, any person may become a life-member exempt from fees. Persons not residents in the United States may be elected as honorary members, and be exempt from the payment of fees.

IV.

The officers shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, an Assistant Secretary, a Curator, a Treasurer, and an Executive Council consisting of the foregoing officers and of four other members elected by the Association with the Ex-Presidents of the Association. These officers shall be elected by ballot at each regular annual meeting of the Association.

V.

The Executive Council shall have charge of the general interests of the Association, including the election of members, the calling of meetings, the selection of papers to be read, and the determination of what papers shall be published.

VI.

This Constitution may be amended at any annual meeting, notice of such amendment having been given at the previous annual meeting, or the proposed amendment having received the approval of the Executive Council.
