THE AFFLICTED'S REMEMBRANCER.

THE Compiler of the following Manual, having found from his own experience that the memory is greatly assisted by means of an Alphabetical Arrangement, has, according to this plan, endeavoured to select and arrange certain portions of Scripture, which may, by the blessing of God, be made profitable to His Afflicted People.

It is not their Father's will, that the children should be "without chastisement whereof all are partakers;" wherefore He has furnished them with "exceeding great and precious promises," every way fitted to support and strengthen them in all their "tribulation in the world."

It is with the view of more effectually fixing in the memory some of these precious promises, that this little compilation has been made. And if any "poor afflicted ones" by means of it, shall be better enabled to keep in memory some of the true sayings of God, and thereby be sustained and comforted in their affliction, the Compiler will rejoice in having thus "ministered to the saints."

October, 1854.

ALL things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. Rom. viii. 28.

Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: for every one that asketh, receiveth; and he that seeketh, findeth; and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened. Matt. vii. 7, 8.

As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent. Rev. iii. 19.

A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows, is God in his holy habitation. Psalm lxxviii. 5.

As thy days, so shall thy strength be. Deut. xxxiii. 25.

Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest: because it is polluted. Micah ii. 10.

As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the Lord is round about his people from henceforth, even for ever. Ps. cixv.

And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them. Isa. xlii. 16.

And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear. Isa. lxxv. 24.

As an eagle stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young, spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings; so the Lord alone did lead him, and there was no strange god with him. Deut. xxxii. 11, 12.

Awake, O north wind; and come, thou south; blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasant fruits. Song iv. 16.

Be careful for nothing: but in every thing by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Phil. iv. 6, 7.

Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. Rev. iii. 20.

But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. 1 Pet. v. 10.

Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort ; who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God. 2 Cor. i. 3, 4.
