CHAPTER I.

Bright Fairyland! its golden bowers,
Its tiny elves, and jewell'd flowers,
All rise in view!

IN a quiet valley, surrounded by vast mountains, where rushing streams dash among the rocks, making sweet melodies, that stir the heart and call forth poems, dwelt bright-haired Muriel; beauteous amid the beautiful; in the blue depths of her thoughtful eyes, there seemed a world beyond, unknown to
