THESE Sermons were prepared for the Sunday morning services at KING'S CHAPEL with no thought of publication, and lack the careful revision which Mr. Foote always deemed necessary before printing.

Preached after a time of deep experience in his own life, they spoke to those who heard them of the spiritual realities in which he himself had been living; and it is hoped that any who, in quietness, seek to enter into near companionship with this little book, will find in it a like help and blessing.
