I said I will not walk with men to-day,
But I will go among the blessed trees,—
Among the forest trees I'll take my way,
And they shall say to me what words they please.

And when I came among the trees of God,
With all their million voices sweet and blest,
They gave me welcome. So I slowly trod
Their arched and lofty aisles, with heart at rest.

Then all around me as I went,
Their loving arms they lightly bent,
And all around leaf-voices low
Were calling, calling soft and slow.

* * * * *

I could not fail to know
The words they whispered so,
Nor could I onward go
From words so sweet and low.

—From The Trees.
