PREFATORY NOTE.

No attempt has been made in this handbook to furnish a detailed chronology of the life of Jesus. The schemes prepared by students of the question are so numerous and conflicting that it seems preferable to avoid any attempt at precise dating, and permit some general hints to suffice.

At the close of each chapter, in Part I, will be found the passages in the four Gospels, bearing on that period of Jesus' life. These citations, taken collectively, furnish a complete arrangement of the Gospels. In general the order adopted in the Harmony of Stevens and Burton has been followed, but several changes have been made. Each chapter of the book is also furnished with a list of questions which may be found helpful to the student. Both Scripture references and questions conform to the paragraph arrangement of the text.

Suggestions regarding helpful literature on the subject will be found at the end of the book.

The National Convention of the Disciples of Christ, held in Springfield, Illinois, October 16-23, 1896, adopted the following recommendations:

"1. That this convention approve the idea of adding, within certain limits, the educational feature to the Christian Endeavor Societies among us. This added educational feature shall include helps for the systematic reading of the Bible, a selected course of reading concerning missions in general, and our own missions in particular, and thorough instruction as to the origin, the principles, and the history of our own movement for the restoration of New Testament Christianity.

"2. That this convention approve of the purpose to provide a series of hand-books for our young people covering the fields not already satisfactorily covered."
