BY

SOME WHO WENT THROUGH IT.

“WHEN Christian had travelled in this disconsolate condition some considerable time, he thought he heard the voice of a man as going before him, saying, ‘Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no ill for Thou art with me.’ Then was he glad, and that for these reasons: first, because he gathered from thence that some who feared God were in this valley as well as himself; secondly, for that he perceived God was with them, though in that dark and dismal state, and why not, thought he, with me?—though by reason of the impediment that attends this place I cannot perceive it.”

BUNYAN.

“As one who, walking in the twilight gloom,
Hears round about him voices as it darkens,
And seeing not the forms from which they come,
Pauses from time to time, and turns and hearkens.”

LONGFELLOW.
