PREFACE

ON leaving a Parish, the senior curacy of which he has held for more than seven years, the Author has been happy to comply with the request that he would publish some of his Sermons as a memento of his ministry at S. George the Martyr. The last, which is included by particular request, was preached at one of the Children's Services, which have been always a source of deep enjoyment to their friend,

THE AUTHOR.

CHRISTMAS, 1873.
