PREFACE

I OWE so many thanks to Sir Charles Watson's friends, whose names appear in this book, that to enumerate them is needless. But I must record my very special debt to Mr. Walter W. Skeat, M.A., late F.M.S.C.S. When I was compelled by circumstances to abandon for a time the completion of this Memoir, Mr. Skeat came to my assistance, and, working with great skill and much labour on the material with which I and Lady Watson, who has been an invaluable helper, supplied him, he wrote most of the later chapters of this book. I cannot sufficiently express my gratitude to him for his most valuable work.

I must add that the spelling of Oriental names in these chapters is not always consistent, because I have often followed the manuscripts without alteration.

S. L.-P.
