A people which takes no pride in the noble achievements of remote ancestors, will never achieve anything worthy to be remembered with pride by remote descendants.

MACAULAY: History of England

The University Press, Cambridge, U. S. A.

HAD it not been for the long, patient, and studious work of the compilers and authors of the many books consulted, to which I am indebted for a large amount of historic material, it would have been impossible for me to undertake and complete this book.
