Dedicated to my Beloved Friends,

Miss Mary Burdette,

For her personal interest ;

AND

Mrs. T. C. Bounds,

For her love and interest in the "Lost Sheep
of the House of Israel."

PREFACE

This little story of my life has not been written to arouse sympathy for myself, but as a testimony to the mighty saving and keeping power of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the Jew first and also to the Gentile.

Some there may be of my own people who have heard the voice of Him that was lifted up on Calvary to draw all men unto Him, yet fearing trials and persecution have not trusted Him. Should any fear the hardness of the way, let me assure you that God is faithful and His grace is sufficient for all things.

God grant that a deeper sympathy and interest may be kindled in the hearts of those who love Jesus for poor blinded Israel, and that prayers may ever ascend to the throne of grace in their behalf.

Let us pray that the Keeper of Israel, who neither slumbers nor sleeps, will graciously hear the united prayers of His children and take away the veil of Moses from before their eyes.
