THE GAMEKEEPER'S DIRECTORY was written by my late father, whose name is not unfamiliar to the Sporting World. The First Edition sold rapidly. My father's death, and other circumstances, prevented a Second Edition being published some years ago. It is now, after having undergone a careful revision by myself, respectfully offered to the Public as a practical book of instruction for the class to which it is particularly addressed, as well as to Sportsmen in general.

JOHN B. JOHNSON.

August, 1851.
