CHAPTER I
Smaly and his wife Redy set forth in search of three little girls : They are bewitched so that their noses turn into beaks : Smaly eats the latch of a door and Redy cuts the hinge : Redy's fingers weep tears : They meet with a Confectioner who resembles a Kangaroo	1
CHAPTER II
Smaly installs himself upon one of the Kangaroo's paws : The two little people see some of the inhabitants of this peculiar country : They meet some sugar horses, and they see also a fish which flies and some sponges which walk : The Wigs imagine that Smaly is made of suet : The ebony and crystal spectacles : The Mother of the Crow	15
CHAPTER III
The Short-Legged Man with the musical voice : Smaly and Redy again declare they are travelling to find three little girls : Papylick puts Smaly and Redy in two boats made out of nutshells	34
CHAPTER IV
Smaly and Redy are not well received : They are thought to be made of painted cardboard : How the Despoiler fell into the water and left a foot behind him : Mistigris sticks a fish-bone into the back of the Despoiler : Judgment is passed on the two strangers : They will be banished at nightfall : The walls of the three gardens are discussed	38
CHAPTER V
Redy and Smaly watch the review of the troops : Smaly and the Mother of the Crow discourse about soldiers : The Chief Contractor distributes the food, and the Wigs pass through a curious little door : The Soy powder makes the provisions grow	59
