'Nisi poenae fulset particeps anima, corporibus tantum fuisset Redemptor . . . Haec nostra sapientia est, probe sentire quanti constiterit Dei filio nostra salus.'

CALVIN, Instit. Religionis Christianae, II. xvi. 12.

PREFATORY NOTE

DR. DENNEY'S illness prevented him from delivering these lectures in the spring of the present year. Fortunately, however, he had prepared them not only for delivery but for publication, and on his death the MS. was found practically completed among his papers. One or two passages, especially in the notes, to which he had merely pencilled a reference in the margin, have been filled in from his note-books. An index has also been added. But otherwise the text of the MS. is now printed exactly as he wrote it.
