THE CITY OF HARTFORD,

*Where John Winthrop's priceless Journal was first printed ;
the Capital of the Commonwealth of which his oldest son was eighteen times chosen governor.*

This Volume is Affectionately Dedicated.

THAT the "sense of difference between Right and Wrong" had filled all Time and all Space for man, and bodied itself forth into a Heaven and Hell for him; this constitutes the grand feature of those Puritan, Old-Christian Ages; this is the element which stamps them as Heroic, and has rendered their works great, manlike, fruitful to all generations. It is by far the memorablest achievement of our Species; without that element, in some form or other, nothing of Heroic had ever been among us.

THOMAS CARLYLE.
