HARPER'S LIBRARY OF AMERICAN FICTION.

THIS new series of novels will be devoted exclusively to the works of American authors. Beginning with one of the most striking and powerful stories which have been offered to the public in many years, it will present in a short time a list of novels which the publishers venture to hope will make it a favorite with American readers. Only works of a very high order of literary merit, and none which the most fastidious taste would exclude from the family circle, will be placed on the list. The volumes belonging to this series will appear in a brilliant and attractive cover, on which, in a graceful and appropriate design, the characteristic products of the North, South, and West are artistically combined. It will be the aim of the publishers to make their new Library truly national in character, and representative of the literary activity of the whole country.
