NARRATIVE of a RESIDENCE in BELGIUM during the Campaign of 1815, and of a Visit to the FIELD of WATERLOO, by an ENGLISHWOMAN, author of Circumstantial Details of the Battle of Waterloo, by a near Observer, 8vo.

* * After the numerous works which have already appeared upon this subject, it may seem superfluous and even presumptuous, to obtrude another on the notice of the Public. This little Narrative has however one claim on its attention, which no other possesses—in being the simple and faithful account of one who was herself a spectator of the scenes which she describes, and a witness of the events which she relates during those days of desperate conflict and unparalleled victory, which must be for ever memorable in British history, and for ever interesting to British hearts.

It was written whilst the impression was yet fresh upon the mind, and the thoughts and feelings which such awful and affecting circumstances were irresistibly calculated to inspire, were expressed without restraint, in the full security of the sympathy and approbation of the partial friends for whose perusal, alone, it was intended; and in compliance with whose judgment it is now published, without any alteration, except the omission of some passages of mere personal interest.

The writers, whose talents have been so nobly displayed in describing the Field of Waterloo, were not, like the Author of this Narrative, on the spot when these glorious events took place; they were pilgrims who afterwards visited the memorable scenes on which they had been acted; they related the past—she delineates the present; she is well aware, however, that the superiority which her account possesses, is that of chance alone, theirs, that of excellence. AUTHOR'S PREFACE.

OBSERVATIONS, ANECDOTES, and CHARACTERS of BOOKS and MEN. By the Rev. JOSEPH SPENCE. Arranged with Notes, a prefatory Dissertation, and illustrations. Handsomely printed by Bulmer, in 8vo.

A COPIOUS GREEK GRAMMAR. By AUGUSTUS MATTHEI, Doctor in Philosophy, Director of the Gymnasium, and Librarian of the Ducal Library at Altenburg, Honorary Member of the Academy of Sciences at Erfurt, of the Latin Society at Jena, and of the Society of Sciences and Arts at Mentz. Translated into English from the German. By the late Rev. E. V. BLONFIELD, M. A. Fellow of Emanuel College, Cambridge. The work is printing at the Cambridge University Press, and will form 2 Volumes, in 8vo.

* * * The superiority of this Grammar of the Greek Language to all that had preceded it, is universally acknowledged by Continental Scholars, who conspire in giving it the highest character. The Author is well known to the literary world as one of the ablest and most judicious philologists of the present day. In composing this work he has availed himself of all the improvements which have been made in the Science of Grammar by the scholars of Holland, Germany, and England; and he has been particularly careful to supply the deficiency for which preceding Grammars were remarkable, by giving a copious and accurate account of the laws of Syntax.

The present translation was nearly finished and ready for the press, when the hand of Providence arrested its author in his career of promise, and left to his friends the melancholy satisfaction of doing honour to his memory, by carrying his purpose into effect.

The FROGS, a Comedy by ARISTOPHANES. A NEW TRANSLATION. With Notes and Marginal Explanations. Printed by Bulmer in small 4to.

An ESSAY on the POLITICAL LIFE and CHARACTER of the Right Hon. R. B. SHERIDAN, 8vo.

The PLAYS and POEMS of JAMES SHIRLEY, now first collected and chronologically arranged, and the Text carefully collated and restored. With occasional Notes and a Biographical and Critical Essay. By WILLIAM GIFFORD, Esq. Handsomely printed by Bulmer, in 6 vol. 8vo. uniformly with MASSINGER and BEN JONSON.

As only One Hundred copies of SHIRLEY are printed in ROYAL OCTAVO, those Gentlemen who have copies of BEN JONSON and MASSINGER in this size, are requested to secure copies to complete their sets of these Dramatic Writers, by an early application to their booksellers.
