It includes information on the importance of using the results to identify areas for improvement and the need for ongoing communication and collaboration between the data collection and analysis staff and the rest of the organization.

OBJECTS AND BENEFITS OF THE SOCIETY

HE New York Southern Society was organized in the City of New York, on the ninth day of November, 1886, to promote friendly relations among Southern men, resident or temporarily sojourning in New York City, and to cherish and perpetuate the memories and traditions of the Southern people.

HUGH R. GARDEN LIBRARY

The Hugh R. Garden Library of the Society (the best collection of Southern literature in the City) has been deposited in the Library of Columbia University, where all members have access not only to the books of the Society, but also to those of the Library of the University.

REUNIONS

The Society holds from five to six Social Reunions or dinners each year at suitable places without cost to the members.

The social reunions so largely attended by the members and their guests are functions peculiar to this Society, and all pronounce them enjoyable and a success.
