PUBLISHERS' NOTE.

---

ON the thirtieth of December, 1881, at the request of the City Government of Worcester, Mass., Hon. George F. Hoar delivered a eulogy on President Garfield, which the Publishers thought should be preserved in permanent form. They therefore asked and secured Senator Hoar's consent to its publication ; and they feel confident that it will be treasured in many public and private libraries as one of the noblest of the many noble tributes to President Garfield, and one of the fittest memorials of his remarkable career and character.

BOSTON, January, 1882.
