TO JOHN FREDERICK M—AND CHARLES EDMUND M—.

MY DEAR LITTLE BOYS,

As I wrote "Open and See" for your cousin Maurice, when he first began to learn to read, I think I ought to write a book for you, now you are learning also.

I have tried to make it about such things as would amuse you, and such as you will see when you go into the country.

I hope you will be able to read this book to yourselves, and that you will also learn to read and love the best of all books, that there you may learn how to be happy for ever.

I am, my dear Boys,

Your very affectionate

AUNT MARY.
