BOY LABOUR
AND APPRENTICESHIP

SOME PRESS OPINIONS

Times.—"The problem already felt acutely in London and in large towns has now appeared even in the country town and village, and to those who still doubt its extent or seriousness we commend this most instructive work."

Morning Post.—"An important book on an important subject."

Daily News.—"Mr. Bray's book is as full of counsel as of instruction, and it should be in the hands of every student of one of the most serious of social problems."
