THIS BOOK
ABOUT OUR BOOKS OF ASSOCIATION
IS AFFECTIONATELY INSCRIBED
TO THE MANY GOOD FRIENDS WITH WHOM
WE ARE ASSOCIATED IN BOOKS

NOTE

THIS volume is absolutely and entirely personal. It is a matter solely between our friends and ourselves.

It is privately printed from type. The number of copies is limited to one hundred and fifty for distribution and two for copyright.

No copy is to go into the salesroom, or into the hands of the reviewers.

Each copy is numbered, recorded, signed, and inscribed with an especial line to its recipient.¹

It is designed to be a monument to us both, founded and builded upon the title-pages and the fly-leaves of the men and women who, in their books, have put themselves on record as knowing and loving us; and whom we are glad to have known and loved.

¹Mr. Hutton had not finished all of the personal inscriptions.—M. E. W.
