THE BLACKDOWN
PAPERS, VOL. I

THE BLACKGOWN PAPERS.

ITALY,
PAST AND PRESENT.
BY L. MARIOTTI.

HISTORY, RELIGION, POLITICS, LITERATURE AND ART.

Second Edition.

Two Vols., Post 8vo. 14s.

"The work is admirable, useful, instructive. I am delighted to find an Italian coming forward with so much noble enthusiasm, to vindicate his country and obtain for it its proper interest in the eyes of Europe.

"The English is wonderful. I never saw any approach to such a style in a foreigner before—as full of beauty in diction as in thought."—SIR E. BULWER LYTON, BART.

"I recognise the rare characteristics of genius—a large conception of the topic, a picturesque diction founded on profound thought, and that passionate sensibility which becomes the subject—a subject beautiful as its climate, and inexhaustible as its soil."—H. DISBURY, Esq., M.P.

"A very rapid and summary résumé of the fortunes of Italy from the fall of the Roman Empire to the present moment.—A work of industry and labour, written with a good purpose.—A bird's-eye view of the subject that will revive the recollections of the scholar, and seduce the tyro into a longer course of reading."—ATHENÆUM.

"This work contains more information on the subject, and more references to the present position of Italy, than we have seen in any recent production."—FOREIGN QUARTERLY REVIEW.

TO SYDNEY LADY MORGAN,

AUTHOR OF "ITALY," "SALVATOR ROSA," ETC.

MADAM,

By inscribing his work to your Ladyship, an Italian only fulfils a duty. He repays an infinitesimal part of the debt our country owes you as the early friend of Confalonieri, Capponi, and other patriots—as the first to vindicate our cause, to consecrate it in the hearts of English readers.

But in my own case, another and more personal obligation is added to the common score. For the last six years, English hospitality—warm, free, unobtrusive—has encompassed me. The air of true freedom has nerved and strengthened me, even to regeneration. My new home has been endeared to me, till it has anglicised my very feeling and thought.

This work of moral and mental naturalization was mainly the result of your unwearied, generous friendship. To you I trace my most valued acquaintance. All the success I ever met with in English literature I acknowledge from you—and from one dearest to you.

The following papers are mostly reminiscences of the land of my youth. None can judge of their accuracy, as delineations of Italian life, better than your Ladyship. To your long-tried indulgence I, therefore, commend them and their author.

I have the honour to be,

MADAM, with great respect,

Your Ladyship's obliged Servant,

L. M.
