MEMOIR

OF

EVERTON JUDSON.

BY

E. P. BARROWS, JR.

BOSTON:

PUBLISHED BY CROCKER AND BREWSTER,
47, Washington-street.

1852.

Entered according to an Act of Congress, in the year 1869,

BY C. L. LATIMER,

In the Clerk's Office of the District Court of Massachusetts.

P R E F A C E .

THE materials for the following Memoir were mostly collected by the author in the summers of 1849 and 1850, during the brief intervals of leisure then enjoyed by him. But the pressure of his official labors has prevented him from arranging them in a proper form for publication before the present year. To the numerous friends of Mr. Judson who have contributed, partly by epistolary correspondence, but principally by personal interviews, to complete the portraiture, he tenders his sincere thanks; and he ventures to hope that his statements of facts will be found to be, by their aid, in all important particulars, accurate. Few understand the amount of labor necessary to exclude errors from even a brief narrative; and some of these, in respect to minor points, may have found their way into the following pages. But the author is firm in the belief that the Memoir will be found to be, in the whole, what he has aimed to make it, historic, and not ideal: and he now commits it to the public with the hope and prayer that it may contribute to perpetuate not the memory alone, but (which is the chief thing) the usefulness of his much lamented friend.
