Some of these poems were printed at my request and gained great popularity amongst all ranks in the B.E.F. I feel sure that through these homely verses many a man has come to realise for the first time some deep truth of the Sorrow of God in this world's greatest agony. Mr. Studdert Kennedy has had experience in all parts of this battle area as a chaplain and knows and loves the men for whom he writes. I wish this little book of poems every success.
