*You and I, you and I,
Footing it together
Under God's blue dome of sky
Through the winsome weather !
Oh, the dream of being free
As the gulls above the sea,
Trammeled by no tether !*

*Free to snatch the moment's mood,
Letting fancy thrall us ;
Free to laugh or free to brood,
If the spirit call us ;
Wandering kindred of the wind,
Cousins to the swallow-kind,
Free whate'er befall us !*

*In each loving shade-caress
Something subtle sharing ;
Overtaking happiness
With its beaming bearing ;
Under God's blue dome of sky
You and I, you and I,
Far together faring !*
