PREFACE.

THIS work has not been written friends
For profit, or for fame,
Or to secure publicity,
Or make myself a name.

I simply wrote because I loved
The countries, where we'd been,
And 'twas a pleasure to recall
The beauties we had seen.

At the request of many friends
I to the public give
This simple little truthful work,
And trust 'twill pleasure give,—

To all, who read the simple tale
Of the little "Ackley Band"
Who wandered far from home,
"Innocents" in foreign land.

I trust the public will be kind
To one who offers here
Her travels in poetic form
With hesitation, fear,—

And over-look the many faults
In this her first attempt.
To please has been her only wish,
From all else she's exempt.

Signed,

Very Respectfully,

MRS. GEORGE A. SPINK.
