WEE LUCY

I

WEE LUCY AND JIMMY-BOY

WEE LUCY DUNLEE was in the garden kneeling before a rosebush. It was a tall bush, much higher than herself. It bore cream-white roses with little dashes of pink on their petals; but the buds were like Lucy's cheeks, "pink, only pink, love's rosy pink."

Lucy called it her rosebush, and often stood and talked to it. Once her mother, Mrs. Prudy Parlin Dunlee, had heard her say, "Pitty yosy, I bringed you down when I camed from heaven."
