To the Reader.

FAITH, here, is like a mountain range, whose
peaks alone are seen,
But glorious are the valleys that lie those peaks
between;
The heights explored, survey the plains, and rest
your weary feet,—
Each covert gleams with beauty and with flowers
most rare and sweet.
Perchance, a little while elapsed, we'll 'midst their
fragrance rove,
And wander further on the way hedged in by Peace
and Love.
