NOTICE.

I owe the greatest obligations in the composition of the following Lectures, to Mr. Freeman's exposition of the sacrificial system of the Mosaic covenant, in his second Volume of the "Principles of Divine Service." His explanations and suggestions have been freely used, and form the basis of many portions of these Lectures.

I have also derived valuable aid from "Jukes on the Offerings," a book that makes one long that the devout and thoughtful author had seen as clearly the connexion between the Levitical system and the Sacraments of the New Covenant, as between it and our Lord's Person and saving work.
