NOTE

This little compilation has been made entirely for the purpose of recording and perpetuating the names of the descendants of my great-grandfather, Richardson Sands, whose direct descent I have traced from James Sands, the first immigrant and the ancestor, I believe, of all the people in the United States of English descent bearing the name of Sands. While there is every reason to believe that James Sands was a grandson of Edwin Sandys, Archbishop of York (born in 1516; died July 10, 1588), there is not sufficient evidence to justify the claim of this descent.

I have added an appendix, containing the direct paternal genealogies of the wives of my direct ancestors to James Sands.

BENJAMIN Aymar SANDS.
