PREFACE.

THE Poems and Hymns contained in this volume were written in fragments of time during five-and-twenty years of a busy life. The first three were read at Social Parochial Entertainments. Perhaps I may be presumptuous in hoping that a larger public will to some extent endorse the approval which they received in a more limited and indulgent circle. Some of the hymns have already appeared in various Hymn Books for public worship, and one little hymn has found its way into most English Hymnals. I have always readily acceded to the request for their being thus used, and esteem it a privilege that anything I have written should be thought suitable for so high and sacred a purpose.
