NOTE

IN consigning this little book to a kind and ingenuous public, I make one emphatic protest: the fictitious persons here described do not represent actual individuals. Dr. Primrose, Dr. Ely, Dr. James, Dr. Flaxman, Dr. Consequence, Scholasticus, Scriba, and the rest have no true prototypes. They are composite studies. There is one exception: Dr. Optimus (chapter VI) is that remarkable man, Dr. Edward Fitch Cushing, of Cleveland, and my very dear friend, now dead.

Actual public and historical characters are not disguised, but are truly named in the text.
