PREFACE.

The unusual favor with which our Twentieth Century Hymn Book for the Sunday-School, "UPLIFTED VOICES" is being received, leads us to believe that a book of the same merit will be welcomed by young people's societies and in devotional meetings. Realizing that there is "wisdom in a multitude of counsellors", the editors have secured lists of favorite hymns from a large number of Christian workers; only such, however, were inserted which received several endorsements; hence, it is safe to say that "CONSECRATED HYMNS" represents the voice of the people.

The utmost care and professional skill have been spent upon the literary and musical features of the book; and a proper regard for the high importance of Christian hymns has actuated the editors.

This work is offered to the cause of Christ with the hope that it may be a channel of help, inspiration and increased consecration to Christians everywhere.

No. 5. LIGHT ON THE OTHER SIDE.

Rev. H. H. RYLAND,

A. B. MORTON.

1. Does dark-ness now come o'er thy soul? There'll be light on the oth-er side
2. Does trou-ble dark now blight thy life? There'll be light on the oth-er side
3. Do shades of sor-row cross thy way? There'll be light on the oth-er side
4. To Je-sus come, ye sad and lone, There'll be light on the oth-er side

Some day the clouds a-way will roll; There'll be light on the other side
 When free from toil, and care, and strife, There'll be light on the other side
 When grief and sigh-ing flee a-way, There'll be light on the other side
 And heav-en make thy fu-ture home, There'll be light on the other side

REFRAIN.

There'll be light, there'll be light, There'll be light on the other side, there'll be light, there'll be light, there'll be light,

In heav'n a-bove there is no more night, There'll be light on the other side.
