FOREWORD

ALL the stories in this book are of the time before the war but leading up to it. Those who loved the British Empire in the East, as Englishmen in former days imagined it, will understand, for they have shared the author's progress towards disillusion as illustrated in the Eastern stories here. Goodwill and geniality towards Eastern peoples could hardly flourish in the shadow of the Czardom which still lies over England's Eastern policy. May it be lifted and goodwill return!
