THE STORY OF THE THREE PIGS

Once there was a mother pig who had three little pigs.

Their names were Whitey, Brownny,
and Blacky.

The three little pigs grew and grew.

At last they were large enough to go away from home.

So their mother kissed them good-bye
and sent them away.

WHITEY'S HOUSE

Whitey met a man
with a bundle of straw.

He said, "Please, sir,
will you give me the straw
to make me a house?"

"Yes, you may have it," said the man.

"Thank you," said Whitey.

Then he made a house of the straw.

THE WOLF VISITS WHITEY

Soon the wolf came and rapped at the door.

He said, "Little pig, little pig,
let me come in."

The little pig said, "No, no,
by the hair of my chinny chin chin,
I will not let you come in."

"Then I'll huff and I'll puff, and I'll blow your house in,"
said the wolf.

And he huffed and he puffed,
and he blew the house in.

Then he ate up the little pig.

BROWNY'S HOUSE

Browny met a man with a bundle of sticks.

He said, "Please, sir,
will you give me the sticks
to make me a house?"

"Yes, you may have them,"
said the man.

"Thank you," said Browny.

Then he made a house of the sticks.
