REPORTS OF CASES DECIDED IN CHANCERY CHAMBERS,
AND IN THE MASTER'S OFFICE,
AND OTHER DECISIONS AFFECTING POINTS OF PRACTICE.

THOMPSON V. FREEMAN.

Chambers or Court Application.

A motion which is strictly and properly a Court motion, will not be taken in Chambers by the consent of parties.

A motion so made in Chambers was refused, but without costs.

[January 9, 1872.]

The plaintiff, who was also the receiver applied on Statement petition for an order vesting all the bonds, mortgages, and other securities for money and the lands of the estate in him as receiver until such time as the division provided for by the decree on further directions was made, and the new trustees appointed in pursuance of that decree, or that the present trustees might be "ordered to convey and assign all their estate and interest in the property to the petitioner as receiver."

The parties beneficially interested in the estate in question were the plaintiff who had by far the largest interest, and Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers and their infant children. The decree on further directions made in 1869 directed a division of the estate, the conveyance to the plaintiff of his share, and to three trustees to be appointed by the Master of the shares of the said parties. To the order now asked the present trustees and Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers consented. The guardian of the infants
