(Found, after Dr. Babcock's death, on the fly-leaf of his pocket Bible.)

RIVERDALE, N. Y., November 7, 1899.

Committed myself again with Christian brothers to unreserved docility and devotion before my Master.

MANY of those who looked to Dr. Babcock for help and inspiration have asked that some of his words might be put into permanent form; this book is the simple outgrowth of that request.

The sources from which selection could be made are few. Dr. Babcock's sermons were preached from full, but intricate, notes, which no one else could develop, and he had written no book.

Many of the selections have been already printed in the Sunday-School Times, The Brown Memorial Monthly, The Christian Endeavor World, and Forward; and grateful acknowledgment is due to these publications. Appreciation and thanks are also due to those who have contributed—from notes made at public services—many of the most helpful phrases, and to those who have shared personal letters.

The verses, which were written in moments of recreation, are added; and the resulting book is printed in loving memory of one who lived what he taught.

KATHARINE TALLMAN BARCOCK,
MARY R. SANFORD.
