JAMES BALLANTINE

ONE HUNDRED SONGS

280. m. 103.

THE following Songs have been selected from a large number written during five-and-twenty years. Several of the Airs have been contributed by eminent Composers, others have been adapted from ancient National Melodies; and in the words, I have endeavoured chiefly to embody and illustrate the maxims and manners of dear Auld Scotland.

JAMES BALLANTINE

EDINBURGH, 1865.
