TO MAJOR WILLIAM FRASER,

FORTY-THIRD LIGHT INFANTRY.

MY DEAR FRASER,

I dedicate the following little Work to you, having so often, and for so many years, enjoyed sports of the field and flood with you in Barbary, Spain, and Ireland; that I feel you will like to read what an old friend has been doing, and how things are done in a very strange land.

I am,

my dear FRASER,

very sincerely yours,

GEORGE BRAM,

late 43rd.
