DEDICATION

To my colleagues on the Committee of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States which prepared the Referendum on the Economic Results of the War, men with the vision and courage to plan definite ways to prevent future wars:

EDWARD A. FILENE, a merchant of Boston; President of William Filene's Sons Company; Director of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States; former Vice-President of the International Congress of Chambers of Commerce.

PHILIP H. GADSDEN, Lawyer; President of public utility companies in Charleston, South Carolina; formerly President of the Charleston Chamber of Commerce.

EDWARD HIDDEN, President of the Southern Woman's Magazine; formerly President of the St. Louis Business Men's League.

HERBERT A. MELDRUM, a merchant of Buffalo; President of the Buffalo Chamber of Commerce.

GEORGE E. ROBERTS, Assistant to the President of the National City Bank of New York; formerly Director of the United States Mint.

PAUL H. SAUNDERS, President of the Commercial Trust and Savings Bank of New Orleans; Director of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta.

This book is dedicated with the expression of a like faith with theirs, in the power of international commerce to aid in maintaining international peace.

BY THE AUTHOR.
